

For Immediate Release

Contact: Sean Philbrook, 360.695.4116

sean@iccbusiness.org

IDENTITY CLARK COUNTY APPOINTS TWO BUSINESS LEADERS TO BOARD OF DIRECTORS

John Dombroski

George Martin

VANCOUVER, Wash. – (January 6, 2020) – The business leaders group Identity Clark County has appointed John Dombroski and George Martin to its Board of Directors.

Mr. Dombroski, the local Owner/Operator of the Chick-fil-A restaurant in east Vancouver, employs 75 at his current restaurant and is actively pursuing a second Vancouver location in 2020. He is active in community engagement, including partnering with school districts, nonprofits and special events. Mr. Dombroski is a veteran of the U.S. Armed Forces and a graduate of the U.S. Air Force Academy with a degree in political science.

Mr. Martin is Vice President and Relationship Manager for Banner Bank. He previously developed a commercial loan portfolio for Riverview Bank, and has experience with Key Bank, U.S. Bank and Washington Mutual. Mr. Martin was a U.S. Army Officer at Ft. Riley, Kans. He has an MBA from New York University and a degree in political science from Loyola University.

The organization reconfirmed Peter Seeley, Vice President of Alliant, as a Director. It also appointed to its Executive Committee Esther Liu of LSW Architects and Tyson Fuehrer of Biggs Insurance.

Identity Clark County is a 26-year-old business advocacy organization comprised of influential business leaders that together strive to build a better community. The privately funded organization maintains an office in Vancouver and a lobbying presence in Olympia.

###