IDENTITY CLARK COUNTY NAMES SCOTT HORENSTEIN TO HONORARY POSITION OF CHAIR EMERITUS

Scott Horenstein

VANCOUVER, Wash. – (February 1, 2022) – The business leaders group Identity Clark County has appointed long-time board member and former chairman Scott Horenstein to the honorary position of Chair Emeritus.

Mr. Horenstein is the principal of Scott Horenstein Mediation LLC, which provides mediation services to resolve family and business differences that otherwise are destined for lengthy and expensive deliberation in courts. He was an attorney in Clark County for most of his professional career where he gained a reputation for finding mediated solutions. Mr. Horenstein joined the board of directors of Identity Clark County in 2000 and served as its chair from 2010 to 2012.

“As a highly respected business leader, Scott has provided steadfast guidance in uniting business leaders around projects and initiatives that make our community better. We look forward to his continued involvement and wisdom in this honorary capacity,” said Ron Arp, President of Identity Clark County.

Horenstein becomes the third Chair Emeritus for Identity Clark County, joining Tom Mears and the late Ed Lynch. The organization also has honored four business leaders with Director Emeritus titles, including Elie Kassab, Ron Frederiksen, Scott Campbell and Tami Nesburg.

Identity Clark County is a 29-year-old nonprofit business advocacy organization comprised of about 90 influential business leaders who together strive to build a better community. The privately funded organization maintains an office in Vancouver and a lobbying presence in Olympia. More information is at www.iccbusiness.org.
