IDENTITY CLARK COUNTY HONORS NESBURG

Tami Nesburg

VANCOUVER, Wash. (August 16, 2021) – The business leaders organization Identity Clark County has honored longtime regional banking executive Tami Nesburg as Director Emeritus.

Nesburg is Senior Vice President and Director of Commercial Banking for Pacific Premier Bank. Its parent company, Pacific Premier Bancorp, Inc. (NASDAQ: PPBI), has more than $20 billion in total assets, focuses on bringing custom banking and lending solutions to clients in Clark County and nationwide.

Nesburg has 39 years of banking experience and has served many regional commercial and construction clients. The community-minded executive joined Identity Clark County's board of directors in 2000 and has served continuously for 22 years, including roles on the group's executive committee.

As a Director Emeritus, Nesburg joins other long-time community leaders Elie Kassab of Prestige Development, Ron Frederiksen of RSV Building Solutions, and Scott Campbell of The Columbian newspaper. The group's sole Chair Emeritus is Tom Mears of The Holland, Inc.
