IDENTITY CLARK COUNTY ELECTS DERRICK SMITH TO ITS BOARD OF DIRECTORS

VANCOUVER, Wash. – (January 16, 2024) – The business leaders group Identity Clark County has elected Derrick Smith to its Board of Directors.

Smith is CEO of MacKay Sposito, a 50-year-old engineering firm headquartered in Vancouver and delivering professional services across eight states. He became CEO in 2019 after joining the firm's Tri-Cities operation as a Vice President in 2005 and a decade of project management, engineering and construction services experiences. Smith has an MBA from Arizona State University's W.P. Carey School of Business and a civil engineering degree from Brigham Young University. He has a supporter of the Boy Scouts of America and his church community.

Identity Clark County is a 30-year-old organization comprised of influential private sector business leaders who seek to build a better community. The nonprofit organization maintains an office in Vancouver and a lobbying presence in Olympia.
